Praising my tree planting

Martinez, June 21, /01

My dear Mr Lukens

I'm glad to see by the newspaper you sent me that a host of young trees are rising up on the mountains to call you blessed. You have made a good beginning in tree-planting & the effect will be far reaching. I have to go to the Troluene Meadows with the Sierra Club excursion next month, & this recalls the pleasant trip with you. I should be very glad to have you with us. but I suppose you will be busy with the reservation work.

Remember me Mr Lukens, Mrs Jones & dear Lottie. Ever Yours truly.
John Muir

Can you give me Supplemental Newhall's address?
